

I support the Indiana no-call list as it currently stands. I believe businesses should not be allowed to solicit new business over the telephone. I can be reached as needed to discuss any current business I have with any of the banks I'm currently doing business with.